JACK DEMUND AGAIN.

Although the air was somewhat crisp yesterday the weather was clear and sunshiny and was probably the means of drawing out the largest attendance to Lakeside, save the opening day. The track was soft and somewhat slushy in spots, especially next to the inside rail, all through the stretch, and mud larks had the best of the arguments in every race.

The best class of horses entered on the day's card was in the third race, a dash of one mile for three-year-olds and upward. Jack Demund was thought to be much the best and was made a 1 to 2 favorite, but even at these figures he was the medium of heavy backing. To a good start he and Hoodwink ran in close company for the first quarter, where he opened up a gap of two lengths and increased it to three and a half by the time the final quarter had been reached. He easily held Hoodwink safe in the run for home, winning as his rider pleased by two lengths. Hoodwink beat Vulcain six lengths for second place. The struggle for third place was sharp and spirited between Vulcain and Colonel Ballantyne all through the last eighth, but the former managed to get his nose in front when passing the wire. Colonel Ballantyne ran in improved form and bears watching from now on especially over a heavy track. Inspector Shea was lapped on Colonel Ballantyne at the finish and ran to his best form.

The fourth race, a dash of one and a sixteenth miles for three-year-olds and upward, was taken by Barrack, which received one of the heaviest plunges of the meeting. Bessie McCarthy dodged the issue, leaving a field of five to face the barrier. Red Apple, showing much speed, set a hot pace for the first seven furlongs, where Moabina, Barrack and Irving Mayor closed up fast, the four turning into the final quarter almost abreast, but in the final eighth Barrack came away without much of an effort, winning by two and a half lengths from Irving Mayor, which beat Moabina one for second place. Irving Mayor easily outstayed Moabina in the last eighth struggle for second place, the latter finding the distance too long for her. Red Apple tired fast when the pinch came. Prima II. ran well for six furlongs.

The day's first race, a six furlongs scramble for two-year-olds, was won by the long overdue Albemarle, but not until after a sharp argument with Brookston all through the final eighth. Albemarle, showing much improvement, led by a fair margin until well straightened for the wire where Brookston moved up and joined him. The two fought it out hard all through the final eighth, Albemarle finally winning by a neck. Brookston finished four lengths in front of Angelo for second place. The latter tired fast in the final furlong and would have lost third place in another stride or two to Jove. Jove ran a dull race Wilkerson appearing to be of little use to him in the last quarter run. Zepho showed a little early speed. Sidney Sabbath was not a serious contender. He can do much better and the race should be thrown out in future calculations.

One of the closest finishes of the meeting took place in the second race, a dash of five and a half furlongs for all ages, Mayor Johnson beating Jau-bert by the shortest of margins. The former displayed much speed, leading away off by himself until just after passing into the final quarter, where he began to tire. Under a hard drive, however, he lasted long enough to beat the fast finishing Jau-bert a short head on the post, with Howendobler third one length back. The last named finished strongly. Sarah Maxim was pocketed until the field spread in the run for home, where she got clear sailing and finished going fast next to the inside rail. Optional was under a hard drive all through the final eighth, but tired noticeably in the closing strides.

The fifth race, a scramble of five and a half furlongs for two-year-olds, went to Sidney Bender's much improved Prince of Monaco—Gondola gelding, Lord Melbourne. Mary McCafferty was selected by the talent as the likely winner, but the best she could do was to run third. Lord Melbourne, displaying much speed, led from start to finish, winning as his rider pleased by four lengths from Rankin, which beat Mary McCafferty a neck for second place. Rankin tired fast at the end and would have lost second place in a few more strides. Goody Twoshoes finished strongly and, altogether, ran a good race. Musical Slipper ran far below expectations and never gave her many backers the faintest sign of hope.

The last race of the day, a dash of once around the circle for three-year-olds and upward, was taken by the favorite, Fingal. Charley Thompson was the medium of heavy backing, but had to be content with second place. Tom Kingsley, showing a sharp turn of speed, threatened to make a runaway race of it for a spell, but after leading for six furlongs tired rapidly and fell away beaten. Turning for home Fingal assumed an easy lead and held it to the wire, winning by one length from Charley Thompson, which beat Lou Woods seven lengths for second place. The last named ran a poor race and is certainly an inconsistent performer.

The track this afternoon, at its best, will be slow. Betting was brisk and heavy throughout the afternoon.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A dispatch from San Francisco to Morning Telegraph under date of November 5 says: "Things are looking up at Ingleside. Every day now the horses are filing in the gates and the stables are filling up fast. A number of easterners got in this week, among them Walter Jennings' string from Sacramento, where the horses have been resting up after the trip overland.

"Maxnie, the colt that ran east this summer and since then won the Sacramento Futurity, has been very sick here, but is now on the mend. Clem Pierce, the brother-in-law of C. T. Patterson, Maxnie's trainer, has been looking after the colt night and day, as Patterson is still under the weather.

"M. J. Daly got in this week from the east with six, among them Lapidus, which ran a mile at Oakland in 1:39 last winter; Golden Cottage, Claude and Hesper. Mr. Daly's son, who piloted this year's Metropolitan Handicap winner for Mr. Arthur Featherstone, came with the horses, as did also his brother. L. Daly has grown considerably since last winter and will not be able to ride lighter than 105 pounds.

"Phil Rickman, who for years has been with G. B. Morris, has a useful little stable of his own at Ingleside. He is a quiet, shrewd individual, and it would be well to note the early performances of Cathello and Arthur Ray."

R. A. Smith and W. L. Oliver will ship their racing stables to California Sunday. Mr. Smith has only Articulate to take back to the coast, while Mr. Oliver will take a dozen of the horses which have campaigned so successfully in the "white, red diamonds" here this season. James Frayling has taken Oliver's quarters at Lakewood for the winter. Frayling has wintered the Randolph horses at Lakewood for several seasons, and believes it to be the best wintering place in the vicinity of the metropolis. Frayling will give up the Randolph horses at the end of the season and train a public stable. He already has a number of horses in his charge, and his success this season is recommendation sufficient to insure him an increase whenever he cares for it.—Daily America.

Jockey Patton presented his case to Judge Price at Latonia, Wednesday. The boy was reinstated a few days ago, but can not ride because he has not been granted a license. Patton gave a well known follower of the turf $25 Monday a week ago, asking him to apply for the license, but neither application nor money reached Chicago, and Patton will in all probability have to wait another month before he will be allowed to ride. Under the rules a jockey who is outlawed can not ride while his application for a license is pending. Judge Price, as well as President Perkins and Secretary Hopper, sympathize with the boy's hard luck, and they will do everything they can to have the matter straightened out.

A Lexington dispatch of Nov. 6 to the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune says: "T. P. Hayes, the turfman, who gained national fame as the leader in the fight made against the Western Jockey Club by turfmen who desired to race their horses over outlawed tracks, two years ago, is in Lexington. He came here from Chicago to look over his yearlings at Beaumont farm and to install the four-year-old mare Algie M., a daughter of Hanover, in the stud to be bred to Ornament. Mr. Hayes has some fifteen yearlings that he will have broken, and which will race as two-year-olds next season. Of his this year's stable he sold off all save four horses, Jordan, Lady Strathmore and a couple of two-year-olds. Mr. Hayes expects to have a string of about twenty-two horses next season. He will winter the majority of his horses at the Cumberland Gap track, at Nashville, and thinks he will not race at New Orleans during the winter.

Jockey Pieratt, who won favor here and has been riding at Latonia, narrowly escaped death Thursday through an accident which is thus detailed by a Cincinnati newspaper:

"Pieratt got away slowly with Lady Meddlesome, and he at once tried to get to the front. Failing to get through on the inside of Ecome he pulled his mount up sharply and tried to pass on the opposite side. In making this move the mare crossed her legs and went down, throwing the jockey. He went down in a heap, and as he was in third place at the time it was thought that he was surely killed by the rest of the field running over him. He was picked up and carried to the Blakely stable, and after an examination it was found that he had sustained a broken collar bone and a long scalp wound. After the last race he was removed to the St. Elizabeth Hospital, and his condition was not considered serious. It will keep him out of the saddle for the rest of the meeting, however. It is a remarkable fact that more accidents do not occur at the first turn, especially when the start is made at a mile. There is a wild scramble to get to going. The horses are massed in a compact bunch, and that none of them go down is due more to the intelligence of the animals than to any skill on the part of the jockeys. Pieratt got his fall almost opposite the spot where Pirate Belle met her death two years ago. Pieratt is an apprentice boy and is under contract with Andy Blakely. For some time he has been doing the lightweight riding for Pat Dunne at Chicago. For an inexperienced boy he has done very well, his worst fault being in his slowness to get away from the post."

W. S. Barnes, of the Melbourne Stud, has sold to B. H. Reed for a private figure the three-year-old bay gelding Trialmore, half-brother to School for Scandal, and the three-year-old brown gelding Wimbledon, half-brother to Scarlet Lily. Reed has bought of trainer Walter Grater the three-year-old bay gelding Colonel Crane, by Kehama—Annie Irwin. He will school the trio over the hurdles with the idea of developing them into high-class jumpers for racing between the flags next year at Morris Park, Saratoga, Sheepshead Bay and Gravesend.

The jumpers will be given a full share of the purses at San Francisco during the progress of the approaching winter meeting. One of the best steeplechase courses in the country is that at Ingleside, and as the racing will begin at this track and

LOCAL TURF GOSSIP.

Jockey Hoar, who is under contract to F. D. Weir, has received several offers from owners to go to New Orleans and ride there this winter. The rider is anxious to go to the Crescent City, but unless he gets permission to do so from Mr. Weir he will leave at the close of the Lakeside meeting for Gloucester, N. J., where Weir's winter quarters are located. Late reports from the east are to the effect that Weir will train next year a big string of horses, including the well-known performer, Blues, for Frank Farrell.

S. S. Bender furnished two of the winners yesterday in Jack Demund and Lord Melbourne. The latter is a two-year-old and, judging by the easy manner in which he disposed of the company opposed to him, gives promise for his future and should prove more than a useful horse.

Curtis & Dernham purchased at private terms yesterday from W. Burke & Co. the three-year-old Marcos and will ship him with the rest of their horses on Sunday to New Orleans.

Barrack and Albemarle, both winners at Lakeside yesterday, are out of the good mare Fable. The former is a five-year-old by Bersan and Albemarle is a two-year-old by Deceiver.

Jockey Wilkerson, who rode Jove, the well backed favorite in the opening race, was suspended by the Judges for the remainder of the current meeting, on account of incompetency.

H. N. McTyeire will ship, at the close of the Lakeside meeting, his horses Charley Thompson and Mattie Spencer to Nashville, Tenn., where they will be wintered.

Lord Melbourne, the winner of the fifth race, was bid up by J. W. Briggs $300 over his entered price of $500 and retained by his owner with an advance bid of $5.

C. E. Mahone will shortly send his horses, which includes Banter and Sarah Maxim, to Memphis, Tenn., where they will be rested until spring.

Jockey Buchanan was reported too ill to ride yesterday, and cancelled all his engagements which included the mount on Jack Demund.

E. Herz, the junior partner in the firm of Durnell & Herz, left yesterday for New York.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The virtual reconstruction of the Washington Jockey Club's track at Benning makes it second to none in the matter of appointments. One thing that was a bar to the success of Benning was the nature of the track. It was deep, sandy and consequently slow. It was very hard on the horses. Owners of fair class horses feared to run there. But an entirely new track has been built and with fair weather fast records may be looked for during the course of the coming meeting.

The racing firm of Chinn & Forsythe, well known in the west, has decided to sell out its racing string, including Soltaire, Heather, Honey, Dalcony, Wolfgar, Pastmaster, Propeller, Rubus, Georgie West, etc. The horses are to be sold in Lexington next December.

Hamilton Hand Book, Toronto, Ont. The wager should be paid straight and place, but subject to a reduction of odds to the extent that Zyrá counted as a factor, making it in this case, as near as can be calculated, 8 to 1 and 3 to 1.

Richard Croker, of New York, has bought one of the best racehorses in France. His new purchase is the horse Rodrigue II., for which he has paid $5,000 francs, about $17,000.

Hardy Durham, of New York, purchased the Belle Meade stallion Madison, by Hampton, finds that the horse is sound enough to train, and he will race him next year, if possible.

JOCKEYS HANDICAPPED.

DAILY RACING FORM will from now on publish each week a table of the rating of the jockeys riding at each track based on their performances in the saddle. The best riders at each track will be given the uniform rating of 100, and from that point the others will be graded down according to their estimated relative skill. For a difference of five points between the jockeys a corresponding five points change in the handicap figures assigned the horses in any race must be made. Only riders frequently in the saddle will be given a place in the tables. The following is the rating of the jockeys now riding over the various tracks:

The latter ran a good race and was off well in motion. Miss Eon finished strongly and made up much ground in the last quarter. Suburban Queen was tiring at the end. Maghoni was probably short and can do much better when fit.

Went to post at 3:33. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sauber fenced in good style, liked the going and outgamed and outran his field all the way. Allegiance is promising and was easily the best of the others. Assassin was under a drive all the last quarter to stall off Islip. The latter performed creditably. Henry Gibbs showed but little speed. Buck O'Dowd unseated his rider at the hurdle in the homestretch.

Went to post at 4:05. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won driving; second easily. Bargee was taken the short route, saved ground at the turn into the homestretch and was under a hard drive all through the last furlong to stall off Dr. Hagyard. The latter was as good as left at the post, but closed a big gap, came with a rush in the homestretch and would have won in another stride. Quality Street ran a good race and finished strongly. Odran and D'Arcy were tiring at the end. Music Man did not run his race. Stars and Bars showed early speed.

Winner—B. c, by Troubadour—Matinee (trained by V. Hughes).

Went to post at 4:31. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Trocadero came to the outside in the stretch run, fought it out sharply with Kunja all through the last quarter and was going away in the last ten yards. Kunja made up much ground in the stretch after falling back on the far turn and was pressing the winner hard at the end. Latson ran in much improved form, but tired in the run home. King Barleycorn ran well for over six furlongs. Pat Garrett quit early and does not run consistently.

Went to post at 2:15. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second driving. Oom Paul outclassed the field. Away badly, he trailed the others to the stretch where he closed a tremendous gap and won going away fast. Lord Badge, interfered with on the stretch turn, closed up fast in the last furlong and appeared like winning, but unexpectedly tired right at the end. Belvino forced the pace throughout and held on gamely. Daly ran in improved form. Sadducee tired and quit in the last furlong. Maude Gonne was always outrun. Belle of Lexington had little chance with her bad jockey.

Went to post at 2:40. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second easily. Courtenay, when called on in the stretch, made good decisively and was best. Rocky tied right at the end after excessive early use. H. L. Coleman ran a dull race and barely beat the improving Oclawha in the last stride. Went to post at 3:03. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Lyman Hay got away running, led throughout and was easily best and can beat better ones. Allan finished strongly and just got up in time to beat the badly ridden Examiner. The latter ran a good race, and but for a weak finish would have been second. Mackie Dwyer failed to handle the weight well and did not come on, as expected, in the last quarter. Captain Arnold was practically left.

Went to post at 3:30. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Young Henry came away without much effort when startled for the wire and outclassed the field. Obia trailed to the stretch where she came fast and finished strongly. Barbara Fretchie, fresh and good, held on unexpectedly well and should improve. Animosity lacked her usual speed, tired in the stretch and ran a bad race. Knight of the Garter is unreliable and was not good enough.

He was best and is more than useful evidently. Fading Light ran a speedy and game race under a good ride. Star and Garter ran well and finished strongly. Tioga made up ground from a poor start. Mrs. Wiggs showed a good turn of speed and will improve. Raglets ran a bad race.

The latter appeared a sure winner almost throughout and ran a fast and game race. Mosketo, nearly left, made up twenty lengths on the first two and was probably best. McWilliams, crowded out of it on the first turn, was closing up very fast at the end. Patronymic, away badly and knocked back to last on the first turn, practically entered the journey. "It was der real t'ing from der shtable!" said she. "I was told it dis morning und I haf played it across der boards. I put fifteen dollar to vin at seven to von, fifteen dollar a place at two und a half and fifteen dollar to show at even money. I haf played Courtenay a place for ten dollar at sixteen ter ten, und Rossfame ter show at even money for twenty dollar! Ladies, I tell you dat it is der best t'ing of der day, und I will get all of der money!"

"Half a dozen women took the tip and put one-dollar bets on Ray straight. When Starter Cassidy sent the field away in good order the stout woman shrieked:

"Dat was a horrible start! Vere iss dot Ray? Hey? Who's dot in front? Hey? It's Courtenay! No, it's Rossfame! No, it's Bar le Duc! Ain't it Choate? Maybe it's Oclawha! Where iss dot Ray?"

"Ray was in front all this time and the crowd was yelling the filly's name on all sides of the stout woman, but she paid no heed. She was sure that Ray was trailing far behind.

"Dot was a lovely tip, hey? I don't t'ink! Oh, such a lovely tip!" she wailed. But suddenly she released another cry that startled the bystanders and made her an object of curiosity.

"Come on Ray! Redfern, you poy! Come, Reddy! Oh, Ray! Come, Ray! Oh, Reddy! I've got it! Oh, I'm dyin'!"

"It was with a scream as if in mortal agony that she sank back in her chair while the women around her were laughing and giving vent to their happiness. The stout woman looked at the hoisted numbers and then let out another yell.

"Courtenay iss second und Rossfame iss third! Oh, dis iss too good! Vat did I vin?"

"The women got their pencils and quickly delved into the mathematical problem. The stout woman awaited the summing up. She was informed that she had won $165 straight, $37.50 place, and $15 third on Ray, $16 on Courtenay on place and $20 third on Rossfame, or $193.50 to the race. She screamed again and when the betting commissioner came back with her money she embraced him. But there was fire in her eye when he demanded a commission for placing the money and after a hot argument the man was glad to escape with $2.50.

"I t'ink," remarked the stout woman when she had cooled down, "dot I should have won $200! Dere's been some skin game somewhere, dot's sure! But dis money iss real und I don't care!"

"Ray, by the way, is a half-sister to Tribes Hill, who won on Tuesday at 60 to 1. She was formerly the property of S. Sanford & Son and was sold at Morris Park to W. Durker. Though nominally a three-year-old, Ray is virtually a two-year-old, as she was foaled a few days before the first of the year. Durken and his friends won heavily on her victory.

"The money lost on Syrlin, Cameron, Unmasked, Old Hutch and Belle of Lexington in the first race yesterday would have filled a wagon. Billy Oliver had the pleasure of collecting a bulky bank roll when his game colt, Lord Badge, won this event by a head. There was as much as 25 to 1 against Bonibert, who got away last and then ran a plucky uphill race about six lengths behind the winner.

"Shandonfield was the tip in the second race and was backed down from 30 to 1 to tens. The Tammany crowd uncorked a supposed good thing in Oclawha, but the gelding was not fast enough. Bar Le Duc was the favorite, but Shea did not do him justice. Rossfame was beaten down to sixes, while Lady Radnor was popular at sevens.

"The Tammany bettors went to Athlana in the Bellerose Stakes, reducing the filly to fives. As Redfern had the mount, the politicians were spending the money in their minds as the horses went to the post. Athlana was a contender to the stretch, but stopped. Charles Ellison backed Lyman Hay across the boards and would have won a pretty penny if the Esher colt had been able to beat W. R. Condon. Courtmaid was backed by John Carr at sixes, but she ran poorly.

"Starter Cassidy's poorest effort of the afternoon was in the fourth race. When he sprang the barrier half the horses were tangled up. The wise men planked their money down on Albert Simons' Major Mansir and Senator McCarren's Dr. Riddle, with the greatest confidence, only to see it go up in smoke. Dr. Riddle, in his last four races, has been heavily supported, but has, in each instance, been of no account. The tip circulated on I Know served to cut him from 25 to 1 to twelve. Rough Rider, which won this race, finally made good after being played for a good thing in three successive events. With an even break Satire might have won for Schaffer & Meyer.

"When Futurita won the fifth race yesterday the talent looked back over the 'dope' and discovered that the Keene filly was the first successful favorite in the eleven consecutive races. F. P. Keene, incidentally, was a visitor at Aqueduct yesterday and was well pleased with the performance of His Highness' daughter.

"Raglets, who ran second in this event, was the cause of the Dave Gideon-Jack Joyner mix-up at Gravesend a month ago. She was well backed yesterday and so was J. B. Haggin's Lady Sarah, which was reduced from 15 to 1 to sixes and ran third. Another hot one was A. C. McCafferty's Star and Garter, played from 15 to 1 to eights.

"To take the place of Lucien Lyne, who will ride for the Keenes next year, John A. Drake will probably engage Tommy Meade, whose contract with Sam Hildreth will expire soon after the first of the year. Meade has been riding here with fair success lately, being under a special engagement to Albert Simons. He will go to Nashville shortly to exercise Drake's yearlings and later on may ride as a free lance at New Orleans or San Francisco.

"J. J. McCafferty announced yesterday that he had a few horses left in his stable that would be put under the hammer next Saturday.

"Jockey Otto Wonderly visited Aqueduct yesterday for the first time since he had to stop riding because of illness. He will not ride again until the meeting at Washington. Wonderly sat in a private box during the afternoon with John T. Brush, of the New York Baseball Club, and Manager John J. McGraw.

continue for at least sixty days, if not eighty, before moving to Oakland or Tanforan, the "leppers" will be in for business from the outset. Before leaving here recently President Tom Williams said that a liberal provision would be made for the steeplechasers and hurdlers, and what he says he makes good. In the old days of the Bay District track the steeplechases run over its peculiarly picturesque course were immensely popular, and the contests at Ingleside will no doubt be equally as attractive.

A. Newsum, at one time one of the most noted of American trainers, handling for the famous Nick Finner the great race horses King Lee and Henry Young, the latter Heno's sire, has forsaken the turf and gone into the railroad business in Texas. The objections of his wife to the racing business is said to have precipitated the change and caused him to leave a
